Christopher Robin is the most educated friend of Winnie-the-Pooh, and he can spell a lot of simple words, and even some long and delicate words, but unfortunately he often spells them incorrectly. For example, he has helped Owl to write the following two notices on the door of Owl's residence at The Chestnuts:

Ples ring if an rnsr is reqird.

Plez cnoke if an rnsr is not reqid.

Although Owl is very proud of these notices, he is also concerned that some of his friends may not understand them; in fact, even Owl himself finds the notices a bit confusing.

To help Christopher Robin with his spelling, Winnie-the-Pooh and Owl have bought him an electronic spelling tutor, which pronounces various words and asks the user to spell them. If the user makes a mistake, the tutor shows the correct spelling, along with a comment on the accuracy of the user's spelling; it uses four comments: almost right, quite close, a bit confusing, and very confusing. For instance, Christopher Robin has received the following feedback during his initial experiments with the tutor:

Spelling by Christopher Robin	Correct Spelling	Comment
flocinaucinihilipilification	floccinaucinihilipilification	almost right
owll	owl	almost right
pseudopseudohipoparathyroidism	pseudopseudohypoparathyroidism	almost right

Your task is to determine how the tutor chooses its comments and give the appropriate comment for each of the following six misspellings of the word “typo”. You do not need to explain your answers; just indicate the right comments.

For each misspelling, put the “X” sign in the column with the appropriate comment. Please note that each row in the table must have exactly one “X” sign. If you mark multiple comments for the same misspelling, it will be graded as a wrong answer. Also note that there is no penalty for a wrong answer; thus, if you are unsure of the right

Misspelling of “ typo ”	Comment by the Tutor
	Almost right	Quite close	A bit confusing	Very confusing

As a side note, the dictionary definitions of the long and delicate words misspelled by Christopher Robin are as follows; these definitions are unrelated to the problem.

floccinaucinihilipilification: act or habit of estimating or describing something as worthless, or making something to be worthless by deprecation.

pseudopseudohypoparathyroidism: inherited disorder that closely simulates the symptoms, but not the consequences, of pseudohypoparathyroidism; thus, it has mild or no manifestations of hypoparathyroidism or tetanic convulsions.

antidisestablishmentarianism: nineteenth century movement in England opposed to the separation of church and state.

humuhumunukunukuapua’a: one of several species of triggerfish.

pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanokoniosis: lung disease caused by the inhalation of very fine silica dust, mostly found in volcanoes
